DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's preliminary amendment filed June 22, 2006 is acknowledged and entered.

Claims 23-44 are pending and subject to the following restriction.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

- Group I, claim(s) 23-31, 43 and 44, drawn to a method of producing a synthetic protein comprised of an amino acid sequence that is at least 80% identical to at least 46 contiguous amino acids of a naturally occurring antigenic protein of a pathogen or tumor.
 - Further restriction is required if Group I is elected. Applicant must elect either a protein from a pathogen or a protein from a tumor.
- Group II, claim(s) 32-40, drawn to a composition comprising a synthetic protein comprised of an amino acid sequence that is at least 80% identical to at least 46 contiguous amino acids of a naturally occurring antigenic protein of a pathogen or tumor.
 - Further restriction is required from Group II. Applicant must elect one of SEQ ID NO: 1-6 for examination. This is not a species election.
 - Further restriction is required from Group II. Applicant must elect either a protein from a pathogen or a protein from a tumor.

Art Unit: 1648

- Group III, claim(s) 41 and 42, drawn to a method for treating or preventing an HPV-associated disease by administering a synthetic protein comprised of an amino acid sequence that is at least 80% identical to at least 46 contiguous amino acids of a naturally occurring antigenic protein of a pathogen or tumor.
 - Further restriction is required from Group III. Applicant must elect either a protein from a pathogen or a protein from a tumor.

The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The special technical feature shared by the three groups is a synthetic protein comprised of an amino acid sequence that is at least 80% identical to at least 46 contiguous amino acids of a naturally occurring antigenic protein of a pathogen or tumor. Wu et al. (WO 02/12291) discloses a protein molecule comprising endoplasmic reticulum chaperone polypeptides and antigenic peptides. The molecule inhibits the growth of a tumor when administered (see abstract) and page 16, lines 14-25. The resulting molecule is expected to contain an amino acid sequence that is at least 80% identical to at least 46 contiguous amino acids of a naturally occurring antigenic protein of a pathogen or tumor. Therefore, since the special technical feature is anticipated by the prior art, the claims lack unity of invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed to a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained.

Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
